

Expectations of an Art Scholar

Scholars are strongly encouraged to become ART majors or minors, however this is not a requirement to hold the Art Scholarship.

Art Scholars are expected to be active within the Roanoke College arts community offering positive, regular, contribution.

Requirements:

At minimum, take at least one full-unit ART class a year (May Term courses taught by ART faculty may also be used). Scholars must maintain a 2.0 minimum overall GPA in studio art classes.

OR

Participation in at least 4 of the following activities throughout the year

Student art organization events (such as Kappa Pi)

Olin Hall Gallery openings and/or workshops

Submit work to the college literary magazine, "On Concept's Edge" *

Exhibit work on campus or in college-sponsored shows*

Submit work in regional, national, or international art competitions or Exhibitions*

10 appropriate RC art-related posts to the #RCart social media feed

Other RC events/activities approved by the art faculty with prior notice

\(multiple submissions to the same show/publication counts as one activity)*

Participation in activities should be documented and shared with the coordinator of the art scholars program at art scholars meetings. You will be contacted with those dates at the start of each semester.

Scholarships are renewed after review of the requirements met by the holder at the end of each academic year. A notification of warning may be sent to the holder in the spring if adequate participation has not been made to date.
