

Expectations of the Theatre Scholar

- Scholars are not required to major or minor in theatre to hold the scholarship.
- To receive the scholarship for each semester, a recipient must register for and complete at least one THEA 103 workshop. Working on all shows in some capacity is encouraged.
- Preparation: Scholars are expected to learn their parts, whether on stage or behind the scenes, accurately and in a timely fashion so that they may be theatrical leaders.
- Attitude: Scholars are expected to be an example to others in their attentiveness and cheerful, professional demeanor.
- Punctuality: Scholars are expected to be on time for rehearsals and performances.
- Attendance: Scholars are expected to be at all rehearsals or scheduled shop calls.
- Scholars must maintain a 2.0 minimum overall GPA in theatre workshops (Thea 103).
- Scholarships are renewed after evaluation of the holders' performance at the end of the academic year.

I have read and understand the “expectations of the theatre scholarship” as described above. By my signature below, I agree to these terms and accept the Theatre Scholarship.
