

NONBINDING LETTER OF INTENT

Because of my special regard for Roanoke College, I have provided in my estate plan for the college to receive a gift of approximately $_____.

Both the College and I recognize that this information is provided as an accommodation to the College and that I hereafter may change or eliminate the provision without incurring liability and without notifying the college.

By signing this Nonbinding Letter of Intent, I reaffirm my faith in Roanoke College.

Special instructions to Roanoke College for the use of our gift:
