Institutional Educational Goals

The liberal arts education at Roanoke College will produce resourceful citizens who will
• think critically, analytically, and creatively
• express ideas effectively
• work independently and collaboratively

The liberal arts education at Roanoke College will produce informed citizens who will
• identify and discuss important products of the human endeavor
• have a depth of knowledge in at least one academic field of study

The liberal arts education at Roanoke College will produce responsible citizens who are committed to
• practicing academic integrity and intellectual freedom
• learning and using that learning in active engagement with others
• appreciating the diversity of and contributing to their communities
• pursuing personal well-being