Student Conduct Council Hearing

Notice of Desire to Appeal

You may appeal a decision of a Student Conduct Council Hearing based on the following grounds:

Procedural error:
- Shown to have had a detrimental impact on the outcome of the judicial proceedings.

New Evidence:
- Not available at the time of the original hearing. Absence of this evidence can be shown to have had a detrimental impact on the outcome of the hearing.

If a student feels he/she is not responsible for the charges, he/she must be able to cite procedural error(s) and/or bring new evidence to bear upon the case to receive a new hearing or altered sanctions. An administrator from the Dean of Students’ Office, usually the Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students will review the appeal.
