1. O beautiful for spacious skies
   For amber waves of grain,
   For purple mountain majesties
   Above the fruited plain!
   America! America!
   God shed his grace on thee
   And crown thy good with brotherhood
   From sea to shining sea!

2. O beautiful for patriot dream
   That sees beyond the years

ALMA MATER HYMN
(Please stand and join the Choir in the singing of the Alma Mater.)

Written by Dr. Frank M. Williams
Roanoke College Choir
Dr. Jeffrey R. Sandborg, Director

Deep in our hearts, a flame is softly burning.
Deep in our thoughts, the mem’ries are returning.
Bells that are ringing, choirs that are singing,
Bring back the joys that we have known.

Learning to live, and loving as we’re learning.
Seeking to find the truths for which we’re yearning.
Years come and go, but we’ll always know
That dear old Roanoke served us well.

To live once more, here in these hallowed halls.
To know once again all the joys that we used to know!

Some day the winter of life will pass before us.
Then we’ll remember the place that proudly bore us.
Then we’ll remember Alma Mater.
Then we’ll remember Thee.

THE BENEDICTION
(The audience will remain standing until the academic procession has departed. All graduates and their guests are invited to attend the

Academic Regalia
Ceremonial robes worn in the academic procession during Commencement Exercises convey the breadth and intricate structure of the academic world.

Colors of diverse institutions and academic fields stand in high relief against the basic black of the caps and gowns. By its color(s), the lining of the hood represents the college or university conferring the degree — note the royal blue and gold of Roanoke College.

Gowns themselves are of different shapes — note especially the sleeves — for bachelors, masters, and doctors. The typical American cap is flat with a tassel draped over its front edge; some colleges and universities in the United States and abroad use caps that are softly peaked or round and stiff.

Hoods also differ in shape for each of the traditional degrees. The edge of the hood, as well as the chevrons and piping of the gown, mark the field of study, according the following scheme:

<tr>
<th>Agriculture — Maize</th>
<th>Medicine — Green</th>

Many of our graduating seniors today wear medallions, cords, and/or stoles. These represent and celebrate a student’s special cultural heritage or membership in an academic honor society.
The Class of 2010 wanted to make a difference, leave a legacy, help the 'Noke experience continue, and honor deceased classmates. Students chose to do this through the Senior Class Endowed Scholarship because they knew it would support one of their own — a fellow Maroon. Funds from the Senior Class Endowed Scholarship are awarded to a rising senior with financial need. Seniors also left their mark by providing for the reconstruction of the steps in front of Antrim Chapel.

The Roanoke College Mace

The Roanoke mace was presented to the College in 1996 by the four daughters of Hartselle DeBurney Kinsey ’21. The mace is dedicated to Mr. Kinsey, who was devoted to Roanoke College as a student, teacher, advocate and trustee.

Maces date back to the Middle Ages, when they were used as weapons. Today, they are primarily symbols of academic authority used at formal convocations and commencement ceremonies.

Roanoke College’s mace was designed by Susannah Wagner, a British-trained goldsmith and jeweler in Ashland, Virginia. Also involved in its making were a jeweler, engraver, stonecutter, glassblower and wood crafter. The mace features a sterling silver headpiece, which is adorned with garnets and engraved symbols representing subjects cherished by Mr. Kinsey, an American walnut baluster (or wooden stem) and a medallion engraved with a replica of the College seal on one side and the symbol of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America on the reverse. A maroon hand-blown glass globe honoring the College colors rests inside the sterling silver cage of the headpiece. The cage features architectural elements from Miller Hall and rests on a base that includes a fleur-de-lis pattern found in wrought ironwork around campus.

The Roanoke College Seal

The seal of the College was redesigned by Guy A. Ritter, Jr., Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religion Emeritus. It was approved by the Board of Trustees in April of 1964. It features a shield in national blue emblazoned with a mandarin yellow cross, representing Roanoke College’s relationship with the Lutheran Church. The cross symbolizes the Christian values inherent in our culture, and above it is the lamp of knowledge. The white dogwood flower on the shield symbolizes the State of Virginia. The motto, “PALMAM QUI MERUIT FERAT,” means “Let him who earns the palm wear it.” The palm is symbolic of the palm leaf that was given in honor of excellence in ancient Greece.
