HEY, THIS IS IMPORTANT!

Make sure you have checked your account for holds!! You cannot proceed with housing selection if you have a hold.

March 25th: Web Service Opens
You won't be able to choose housing until your designated time slot; however, there are steps you can take to prepare for that time:
- Sign on and complete your personal and profile information
- Read and submit the housing agreement
- Invite potential roommates

Time slots are assigned to all enrolled students based upon units earned as of the end of the fall 2014 semester. Students who will be living in LLC or Greek housing will be assigned rooms internally and do not need to participate in the formal selection process.

March 25th: Off Campus Selection
On the Housing Selection Portal from 8am-3:30pm you will be able to submit a request to live off-campus. Preference will be given by order of highest units and time submitted. Students will be notified by email before General Housing Selection if their request was granted.

March 30th: Squatters 8:00am-3:30pm
If you would like to keep your current hall and room assignment for the following academic year, you should plan to participate to do this. Displaced residents are not eligible to squat their rooms.

April 13th: Web Service Closes and Waiting List Opens
The housing portal will remain open for changes until 4:00pm on Monday, April 13th, at which time the waiting list will open. Be careful what you submit - if your request can be met, you will automatically be placed in the new room and will not have the chance to accept or decline the space.

Other important information

Off Campus Appeals: Due April 15th
Appeal materials are due by Noon on Wednesday, April 15th to Residence Life & Housing. A committee will review all appeals on Friday, April 17th and students will receive written notice of the decisions within two business days. Appeal materials may be found at roanoke.edu/homesweethome.

Students Abroad or Away from Campus
If you will be abroad, in Washington, or generally away from campus for the fall 2015 semester, but will need housing in the spring, you should NOT go through housing selection. Students who will be abroad or in Washington will be contacted to submit waiting list requests and will be placed in rooms in late fall.

Plan to Commute?
Students who meet the criteria to be commuters may submit a “Change in Residency Status” form to the Office of Residence Life and Housing prior to housing selection. Once approved, future commuter students should not participate in housing selection unless their plans have changed.
