

Communication Studies (Effective August 1, 2015)
The Communication Studies major requires 10 units of work as detail below
Required Courses (6 units)	Done	Need
COMM 101 Introduction to Communication Studies
COMM 250 Communication Theory (COMM 101)
COMM 254 Rhetorical Traditions (Prerequisites: COMM 101)
COMM 350 Research Methods (COMM 250)
COMM 354 Rhetorical Theory and Criticism (Prerequisites: COMM 250, COMM 254)
COM 411 Seminar (COMM 350 and 354)
Intermediate (2 units from):
COMM 202 Mass Communication (COMM 101)
COMM 220 Public Speaking (INQ 110 or INQ 120 or HNRS 105)
COMM 260 Interpersonal Communication (COMM 101)
Electives (2 units from):
COMM 301 Special Topics (COMM 250)
COMM 311 Video Production (COMM 250 or permission)
COMM 317 Professional Communication (COMM 101, COMM 220 ; COMM 250 strongly recommended)
COMM 319 Journalism (COMM 202 and 250)
COMM 330 Small Group Communication (COMM 250 and 260)
ENGL 356 Studies in Film (Note: Film Lab Required)
COMM 360 Studies in Intercultural Communication (COMM 250 ; COMM 260 strongly recommended)
COMM 405, 406, 407 Independent Study (one 300 level COMM course)
COMM 416 Internship (One 200 level COMM course and permission)
COMM 496 Honors Project (See Catalog)
Students desiring to major in Communication Studies are encouraged to complete their INQ 240 (Statistical Reasoning) as early as possible.		