

Tuition Exchange & Remission Benefits Overview

Who is Eligible?

Full-time and part-time regular employees are eligible to apply for tuition benefits after one year of service in a benefit-eligible position.

What is Tuition Remission?

The Tuition Remission program refers to a waiver of tuition to attend Roanoke College. This benefit is available to benefit-eligible employees, spouses, and eligible dependent children.

What is Tuition Exchange?

The Tuition Exchange program provides an opportunity for eligible dependent children to earn an undergraduate degree at member colleges at a significant savings. If benefits-eligible, your child may qualify for a Tuition Exchange scholarship at one of the member colleges.

What do Tuition Exchange and Remission Cover?

Tuition Exchange allows up to 8 full-time semesters. Summer school is not included since it would count towards the 8 semesters. The value of a Tuition Exchange scholarship may be full tuition or the optional set rate depending on the institution. See the applicable tuition exchange network website for more information.

Tuition Remission allows up to 8 full-time semesters. This covers the tuition only cost to attend Roanoke College and does not include other fees such as room and board charges. Tuition for summer school is covered for up to two classes at Roanoke College which does not count towards the 8 semester limit.

How do I apply to use Tuition Exchange and Remission benefits?

Deadline for submission is December 31st of the year prior to fall enrollment. The Tuition Exchange and Remission request forms are located on the Human Resources website.
