

Study Abroad at Aarhus!

Is Denmark Calling Your Name?

A European adventure: Denmark is located in the northern most part of the European continent, bordering Sweden and Germany, which makes it a prime place to travel around the continent and explore the Scandinavian culture. Aarhus is known as the “happiest city in Denmark.” Many of the classes are taught in English. The university is known for being very diverse, and having very strong research facilities. Roanoke College students with a 2.75 GPA or higher are welcome to apply and be a part of the Arts or Psycholo-
