

University of Brighton

Study Abroad in Brighton, England through USAC!

Brighton, located on the southern coast of England, developed as a holiday resort and spa city in the early nineteenth century. Today it is a hub of activity year round, with a lively bohemian feel. Brighton is conveniently located only 30 minutes from London's Gatwick airport and 30 minutes from Newhaven, which has ferry crossings to France.

USAC's partnership with the University of Brighton provides you with a wide array of academic options. You may choose from courses offered in the Brighton Business School, School of Applied Social Sciences, School of Environment and Technology, School of Humanities, School of Education, School of Pharmacy and Biomolecular Sciences, and the School of Arts and Media.
