

Study Abroad with CEPA!

Study abroad in the heart of Europe!

CEPA offers two European study centers: one is Strasbourg, France, and one in Heidelberg, Germany. Students at the Strasbourg site are housed in a Chateau, and students in Heidelberg are housed in the historical Villa Krehl.

Fields of study at the Strasbourg site include: economics, EU studies, European politics, French culture and language, global leadership, intercultural communication, international business & relations, and political science.

Fields of study at the Heidelberg site include: European studies, German history, German language, international business, and psychology.
