

Deakin University

Study Abroad in Melbourne, Australia through USAC!

Victoria is a place of great contrasts—ocean beaches and mountain ranges, deserts and forests, volcanic plains, vast sheep and wheat farms, as well as housing the large multicultural city of Melbourne.

Despite the fact that Deakin is one of Australia's largest universities, with over 30,000 students, the campuses are not huge or overwhelming.

Students on USAC's program enroll in regular Deakin University classes alongside their Australian peers and are eligible to take classes in the following fields: architecture, arts, humanities, social sciences, business, education, engineering, environment, health, information technology, nursing, psychology, sciences, sport, and law.
