

Study Abroad at Kansai Gaidai!

Kansai Gaidai University's Center for East Asian Studies is located in Hirakata City, between Kyoto with its ancient temples and gardens and the vibrant commercial metropolis of Osaka.

Asian Studies Program course offerings cover various topics in rapidly changing societies and cultures, current social issues as well as Japan's history and its unique arts. In order to make it possible for those who have limited knowledge of the Japanese language to pursue these courses, all lecture and seminar courses are offered in English.

Students are required to take Japanese Language courses.

Cost of Attendance:

- ◆ Tuition, housing, and meals: Roanoke College tuition and fees, housing, and meals
- ◆ Additional expenses paid directly by student: airfare, student visas, books & supplies, personal entertainment
- ◆ Financial aid, scholarships and grants apply.

Apply today!