

Study Abroad at Ludwigsburg!

Calling all teachers!

Courses offered at the Ludwigsburg University of Education include German as a Foreign Language, education classes and teacher training for primary schools, secondary schools, special education, early childhood education, cultural and media education, lifelong learning, and European teaching in secondary education. Other courses available for students include sociology, geography, history, politics, theology, physical education, computer science, art, music, math, and philosophy

The baroque city of Ludwigsburg, with its population of approx. 90,000, has not only magnificent castles to offer, but also lively pedestrian areas, cinemas and a colorful club scene.

Billing and Scholarships

- Students pay RC tuition & fees
- Students pay housing fees directly to PHL
- Your financial aid goes with you
- Scholarships are available

<http://www.ph-ludwigsburg.de/>

Don't Let this Opportunity Slip Away, Apply Today!