

Roanoke College
Department of
Business Administration and Economics
 Career Advising Guide

Major	Skills/Attributes Associated	Related Occupations	Additional Sources of Information
Economics B. A.	analytical skills problem solving decision making interest in economic trends objectivity, accuracy patience and perseverance aptitude for computers ability to do research ability to observe and predict	Bank Officer Managers Securities Agent Comptroller Business Executive Financial Planner Labor Relations Specialist Stockbroker Trust Officer Government Research Specialist Business Research Specialist	Foundation for Economic Education 30 S. Broadway Irvington, NY 10533 American Economic Association 1373 21st Avenue South Nashville, TN 37212 Dr. Garry Fleming ext. 2509
Economics is the study of production, consumption and distribution of goods and services and how the use of physical and financial resources and of technology affects human life. It is concerned with equity and efficiency in various aspects of society such as business, employment, health care, labor contracts, agriculture, international trade, energy use and government. Entering Salary: $25,000 –$40,000			