

Happy Fall, Maroons!

The semester is well under way, midterms are almost here - and so are career opportunities. In this busy season, be sure to make time for yourself and your goals.

Here are 3 easy things you can do this week to make sure you're reaching your professional/career goals:

Set aside 1-3 hours/week dedicated to your professional pursuits. Literally, schedule this. Whether that's updating your resume and LinkedIn, scheduling an advising appointment with PLACE, or catching up with your networking contacts - it will only happen if you are consistent and persistent.

 Register for the Fall Fair Playbook: How to Stand Out, Show Up & Shine Tactic and Fall Job & Internship Fair.

Prepare by attending and registering for these events through Handshake.

 Make sure you are confident with your resume. Review The Career Planning Guide (resume section), work on some edits, and schedule an advising appointment in Handshake with a Career Coach in PLACE to review together. You'll be ready for anything with a good resume!
