

ROANOKE COLLEGE
 Department of Public Affairs
 Degree in International Relations
 Career Advising Guide

MAJORS	SKILLS/ATTRIBUTES	*RELATED OCCUPATIONS	EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AT RC	ADDITIONAL SOURCES OF INFORMATION
International Relations B.A. Minor: Foreign Politics	Pragmatic, problem solving skills Analytical skills Good communication skills Likes responsibility Aptitude for leadership Organizational skills Multidisciplinary perspective understanding of global interdependence and diversity Civic activism	Federal, state, or local government Private interest groups and associations International organizations and businesses Business Management Journalism Law Education Diplomacy	Sigma Iota Rho (National International Relations Honor Society) Pi Sigma Alpha (National Political Science Honor Society) Public Affairs Society RC Model UN Club	International Studies Association IR Coordinator: Dr. Gail Steehler

International Relations is a multi-disciplinary major program designed to provide students with a firm foundation of understanding of the dynamics of the international system. The inclusion of cultural, historical, political, economic, and sociological perspectives, as well as emphasis upon analytical and communication skills, provides a broad preparation for a variety of career opportunities.

*Masters or Doctorate degrees in International Relations or related disciplines will enhance one's opportunities to pursue these occupations.