ALMA MATER HYMN

(Please stand during the playing of the Alma Mater.)

Written by Dr. Frank M. Williams
Roanoke College Choir
Dr. Jeffrey R. Sandborg, Director

Deep in our hearts, a flame is softly burning.
Deep in our thoughts, the mem'ries are returning.
Bells that are ringing, choirs that are singing,
Bring back the joys that we have known.

Learning to live, and loving as we're learning.
Seeking to find the truths for which we're yearning.
Years come and go, but we'll always know
That dear old Roanoke served us well.

To live once more, here in these hallowed halls.
To know once again all the joys that we used to know!

Some day the winter of life will pass before us.
Then we'll remember the place that proudly bore us.
Then we'll remember Alma Mater.
Then we'll remember Thee.

THE BENEDICTION

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

MS. NIKKI GIOVANNI

An American literary icon, Nikki Giovanni has lived in the Roanoke region for more than three decades, serving as a professor of English at Virginia Tech; a leading figure in the local arts community; and a sought-after speaker for local schools, organizations and events.

Ms. Giovanni's cultural and artistic influence began more than 50 years ago when she rose to prominence in the Black Arts Movement with a voice so resonant that The New York Times named her the "Princess of Black Poetry," a nickname still used reverently in literary circles to this day.

She has also been called a "truth-teller," as well as a "firebrand" and "sage," among other descriptions, for the way she uses poetry to confront injustice while simultaneously lifting up the power of small moments to create love and beauty in the world.

Ms. Giovanni is the author of more than two dozen volumes of poetry, essays and edited anthologies; 11 illustrated children's books; and 10 albums/recordings. She has won numerous national literary prizes, including an American Book Award, Caldecott Award, Carl Sandburg Literary Award, Langston Hughes Award, and Gwendolyn Brooks Award, as well as a Grammy Award nomination for best spoken-word album.

In addition to her literary recognitions, Ms. Giovanni has been honored for her contributions to American culture as a voice for the Black and Appalachian experience, receiving seven NAACP Image Awards; the Rosa Parks Women of Courage Award; Woman of the Year Awards for Ebony, Ladies' Home Journal, and Mademoiselle magazines; the Appalachian Medallion Award; the John Henry "Pop" Lloyd Humanitarian Award; the Legends and Legacies Award; and a United States Senate Certificate of Commendation.

Born in Knoxville, Tennessee, and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, Ms. Giovanni earned her bachelor's degree from Fisk University, a predominately Black liberal arts college in Nashville, Tennessee. She published her first volume of poetry in 1968 and received grants from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Harlem Arts Council. Between 1969 and 1986, she wrote prolifically, publishing more than a dozen books, poems and audio recordings. During that time, she collaborated with renowned figures in the arts, sports and entertainment, including James Baldwin and Muhammad Ali. She also began what would become a lifelong career as a teacher, with positions at Queens College, Livingston College of Rutgers University, and The Ohio State University.

In 1987, Ms. Giovanni accepted a position as Commonwealth Visiting Professor of English at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Virginia, where she later became a University Distinguished Professor. While at Virginia Tech, she taught undergraduate and graduate creative writing courses while also publishing more than a dozen books and bringing other iconic writers to the region, including Toni Morrison, Maya Angelou and Ernest Gaines. Ms. Giovanni retired from Virginia Tech in fall 2022 and was conferred the title of University Distinguished Professor Emerita.

She continues to travel throughout the region and the nation as a speaker, visiting writer, educator and scholar.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Ceremonial robes worn in the academic procession during Commencement exercises convey the breadth and intricate structure of the academic world.

Colors of diverse institutions and academic fields stand in high relief against the basic black of the caps and gowns. By its color(s), the lining of the hood represents the college or university that is conferring the degree. Note the royal blue and gold of Roanoke College.

Gowns themselves are different shapes for bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees. The typical American cap is flat with a tassel draped over its front edge. Some colleges and universities in the United States and abroad use caps that are softly peaked or round and stiff.

In addition to traditional regalia, you will see some students at Roanoke's Commencement ceremony wearing honor cords and graduation stoles.

Honor cords consist of colorful twisted cords with tassels on the ends. The cords signify academic achievement or membership in a recognized academic honor group or society.

For graduates earning Latin honors, you will see specific solid-color honor cords: gold for summa cum laude, silver for magna cum laude, and white for cum laude.

Graduation stoles are decorative vestments worn by members of a college organization. The stoles recognize membership or participation.

The cord and stole color and design are specific to a recognized academic honor or group.

Hoods also differ in shape for each of the traditional degrees. The edge of the hood and the chevrons and piping of the gown mark the field of study, according to the following scheme:

Agriculture – Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities – White
Commerce, Business – Drab and Sapphire Blue
Economics – Copper
Education – Light Blue
Engineering – Orange
Fine Arts, Architecture – Brown
Journalism – Crimson
Law – Purple
Library Science – Lemon

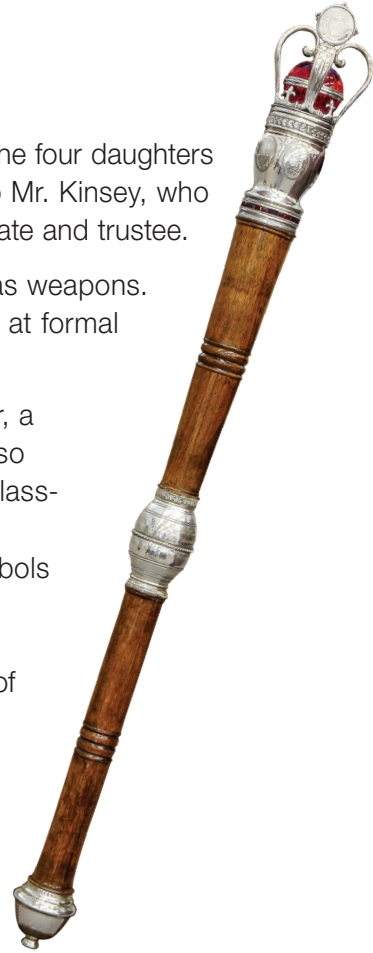

Medicine – Green
Music – Pink
Oratory – Silver Gray
Philosophy – Dark Blue
Physical Education – Sage Green
Public Administration – Peacock Blue
Science – Golden Yellow
Social Work – Citron
Theology – Scarlet

The Roanoke College Mace

The Roanoke mace was presented to the College in 1996 by the four daughters of Hartselle DeBurney Kinsey 1921. The mace is dedicated to Mr. Kinsey, who was devoted to Roanoke College as a student, teacher, advocate and trustee.

Maces date back to the Middle Ages, when they were used as weapons. Today, they are primarily symbols of academic authority used at formal convocations and commencement ceremonies.

Roanoke College's mace was designed by Susannah Wagner, a British-trained goldsmith and jeweler in Ashland, Virginia. Also involved in its making were a jeweler, engraver, stonecutter, glass-blower and wood crafter. The mace features a sterling silver headpiece, which is adorned with garnets and engraved symbols representing subjects cherished by Mr. Kinsey, an American walnut baluster (or wooden stem) and a medallion engraved with a replica of the College seal on one side and the symbol of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America on the reverse. A maroon hand-blown glass globe honoring the College colors rests inside the sterling silver cage of the headpiece. The cage features architectural elements from Miller Hall and rests on a base that includes a fleur-de-lis pattern found in wrought ironwork around campus.

The Roanoke College Seal

The seal of the College was approved by the Board of Trustees in April of 1964. It features a shield in national blue emblazoned with a mandarin yellow cross, representing Roanoke College's relationship with the Lutheran Church. The cross symbolizes the Christian values inherent in our culture, and above it is the lamp of knowledge. The white dogwood flower on the shield symbolizes the Commonwealth of Virginia. The motto, "PALMAM QUI MERUIT FERAT," means "Let him who earns the palm wear it." The palm is symbolic of the palm leaf that was given in honor of excellence in ancient Greece.

Roanoke has a special Snapchat filter for 2023 graduates. It's only available during Commencement on Saturday.

The official hashtag for the Roanoke College Class of 2023 is #maroons2023.
