

“Curator Off Duty” is an open exhibition for all Virginian artists.

This exhibition invites any and all artists to submit a work of art to be shown at Olin Hall Galleries. The only curatorial Criteria is that each submission must fit within one cubic foot. This Exhibition aims to unite the Virginia visual arts community through diversity and inclusion.

Olin Hall Galleries will host material studies and process oriented workshops until the opening of the exhibition in January 2022. Space and materials will be provided to encourage and inspire the community to get creative and show their artwork in “Curator Off Duty”. Local artists and art enthusiasts will share their processes to foster the individual creativity of others.

At the closing of the exhibition, Artists participating will have the option to sell their work to support a local cause.

Funding for C.O.D. workshops is provided by The Joanne Leanohardt Cassullo Center for Art
